Sabbath School Lesson No. 4 – January 23, 1971.
Subject: Care Enough To Act – Act Like You Care.
Keytext: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." James 1:27.

God so loved that while we were yet enemies He let Jesus die in our place, Rom. 5:6-11. He gave Himself for His family. God requires that we also provide our families with disinterested love. Further, He teaches us by example that we are to come for those in need who are not members of our immediate family. We must help our friends when they are in trouble even if they have been the cause of their own problems. We must always do right – whatever the cost may be . . "Philip said to Nathanel, Come and see, He did not ask him to accept another testimony, but to behold Christ for himself. Now Jesus has ascended to heaven. His disciples are His representatives among men and one of the most effective ways of winning souls to Him is in exemplifying His character in our daily life. Our influence upon others depends not so much upon what we say, as upon what we are." The Desire of Ages, Pages 141-142.

Raiders Beat W.C. In Overtime 69-67

The Appomattox Raiders beat the William Campbell Generals 69-67 in overtime last Friday night at William Campbell to give the Raiders sole possession of first place in the Seminole District. The win gave the Raiders a 5-1 mark in the district and 9-1 overall as they won their eighth game in a row. William Campbell now has a 5-2 district mark and a 7-3 mark overall.

The Raiders led only briefly in the first quarter when they built up a five point lead at one time, but the Generals came back to tie it at 13-13 as the quarter ended. The Generals continued to score big in the second quarter and carried a 6-28 lead to the locker room at half time.

The Raiders were not to be denied as they came back in the third quarter with eight points in a row for a 37-36 lead in the fast break, but the Generals held a one point 48-47 lead after three quarters. The climax began to build in the fourth quarter as the Generals again were up to a seven point lead, but the strong shooting of Weldon Gafford put the Raiders ahead at 61-59 with 2:58 left in the game. The Generals tied it at 61-61 as Gafford hit two free throws for a 63-61 lead and with eight seconds left, James Word scored to tie it again to send the game into overtime.

In the overtime the Raiders took the tap and Gafford hit David Johnson on a fast break to make it 65-63. Johnson then made a foul shot and Ronnie McCoy connected on a three point play to make it 69-63 before the Generals could score in the overtime.

There was very little rebounding by either team as they both hit a very hot percentage from the floor, both shooting over 50% with the Raiders holding the edge. Appomattox had 30 field goals and nine of 17 free throws and the Generals 26 field goals and 15 of 20 free throws.

Cheerful Runners-Up

There was another seventh grade team celebrating on the other side of the net, but these players, who made it to the final play-offs in last week's PTA Volleyball Tournament at Appomattox Intermediate School are "champs", too, when it came to a smile for the camera and general enthusiasm. (In front): Robert Ayers, Richard Dickerhoff and Edward Ferguson. (Standing): John Greer, instructor; Claude Robinson, Vernie Lewis, Michael Wright and David Baxter.
